ASK ALL RESPONDENTS

Now, let us talk on the future of a United Europe

Q.1 In December, 1991, at their Maastricht Summit or "European Council", the heads of government of the European Community Member States made important decisions about an even closer unity of Europe.

They agreed in principal on a single common policy in matters of currency, foreign affairs and defence. If there was a referendum tomorrow about the name of the future United Europe, to be built over the next few years, which of the following would you prefer?
