Atomare Rüstung (Form B)

1958
A. What is the greatest problem facing West Germany today, in your opinion?

(NO CODE AVAILABLE)

1. As you know, there is much discussion at the moment over questions of atomic energy. In your opinion, should our Army be equipped with atomic weapons or not?

Column 8

1 Yes, should be equipped with atomic weapons
2 No, should not be equipped with
3 No opinion

2. During the debate over atomic armaments for the Army, the following opinions were voiced: (CARD) Please tell me with which statements you agree the most.

Column 8

4. A - The Bundestag, which is elected by the people, has decided to equip the Army with atomic weapons; we must accept this decision

5. B - On such a vital issue as equipping the Army with atomic weapons, the people should definitely have the right to state their opinion

6. C - If all other means fail to prevent the planned atomic armament of the Army, a general strike should be called

7. No opinion
3. As you know, America has had atomic weapons for some time. Are you for or against permitting American NATO troops to store their atomic weapons in Germany?

5. Now I would be interested in what you think of these leading politicians in Germany. Here is a kind of thermometer. Assume the white squares mean you are in agreement and the black squares mean you are in disagreement. The more you like the person the higher the number, and the more you dislike him, the lower the number. What do you think of Eugen Gerstenmaier (President of the Bundestags)? Of Erich Ollenhauer? Of Franz-Josef Strauss? Of Carlo Schmid? Of Heinrich von Brentano? Of Konrad Adenauer?
