BRITISH SOCIAL ATTITUDES

DOCUMENTATION OF THE BLAISE QUESTIONNAIRE

Notes:

1. This is a documentation of the Blaise program. Not all variables that appear here are on the SPSS file. (Those that are not are marked with a ‘$’). Similarly, not all derived variables that are on the SPSS file are mentioned here. See also separate documentation of derived variables.

2. Unless otherwise specified, ‘Don’t Know’ is code 8 for single column questions, code 98 for two column questions, and so on.

3. Unless otherwise specified, ‘Refusal/Not answered’ is code 9 for single column questions, code 99 for two column questions, and so on. Where there is an explicit ‘Refusal’ code (usually code 7 or 97), then code 9 (or 99 and so on) is reserved for ‘Not answered’ only.

4. Sections in brackets and italics were textfilled as appropriate on the interviewers’ computers.

5. Routeing instructions appear above the questions. A routeing instruction should be considered to stay in force until the next routeing instruction.

6. ‘(NOT ON SCREEN)’ means that the question did not appear on the interviewers’ or editors’ screens. ‘(EDIT ONLY)’ means it appeared on screen for the editors but not the interviewers. Individual codes marked ‘EDIT ONLY’ were used by the editors to reclassify ‘other’ answers.

Q288 [ChCoIntr] $
In the next section, I will be asking about your views on child maintenance arrangements in different situations. Child maintenance arrangements are sometimes made by parents who are separated or who have never lived together, to help support any children they may have had together. These arrangements might involve the parent who does not live with the child making regular payments to the parent living with the child. They may also involve the parent providing support in other ways, such as through occasional gifts, payments towards the mortgage, rent or household bills, help with childcare or jobs around the house. This support could be in addition to regular payments or it might be the only type of child maintenance arrangement.
The following questions ask about child maintenance arrangements in different circumstances.
