Youth in Europe Study

A survey of 16-17 year olds in England, Germany, Sweden and the Netherlands

Key

This document shows the question wording for the web and telephone (CATI) questionnaires.

- The question name used in the programme for questions is written in the box under the question number
- In single questions, the name will appear in the black box
- In questions that are split (e.g. Q5) the name will appear in the box next to the answer option
- Interviewer instructions are written in upper case. Where the interviewer instruction is 'READ OUT', the interviewer will read all the answer options to the respondent in full.
- The telephone (CATI) version of the question has only been entered where it differs from the web version and is prefixed with 'CATI:'
- The name of each block is in the grey box at the top of each block in square brackets []

For example, in the question below the question name is DOB.

If a young person answers this question in the web survey they will be asked 'When were you born?'.

If a young person is taking part by telephone the interviewer will say "Can I just check, what is your date of birth?" and the interviewer will enter the response in the DDMMYYYY format.

Q2: When were you born?

DOB CATI: Can I just check, what is your date of birth?

Introductory text (CATI):

GENERAL INTRODUCTION:

Good morning/afternoon/evening, please may I speak to

IF ASKED: I am calling from NatCen Social Research. We had previously spoken to about one of our studies.

WHEN TALKING TO PUPIL:

Hello, my name is from NatCen Social Research. You took part in an earlier round of the Youth in Europe study which is about what you think about school, your aspirations for the future, and how you spend your free time.

We would like to talk to you about how things have changed over the last year or so, in return we will send you a £10 Amazon voucher. I hope this is a convenient time to talk to you.

IF ASKED: The interview should take around 20 minutes.

IF ASKED FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE STUDY:

The study is being carried out by Oxford University and NatCen Social Research. Similar studies are being carried out in Germany, the Netherlands and Sweden, so that we can compare young people's experiences in the different countries.

The information from this study will help the researchers to find out how best to help young people from different backgrounds achieve their educational goals. We hope that what you say will help improve our understanding about young people's experiences at school both in England and in the other three countries.

IF ASKED ABOUT CONFIDENTIALITY:

Your answers will be kept completely confidential.

Web survey:

Welcome to the Youth in Europe Study questionnaire

You may remember helping us with an earlier round of this study and we would now like to find out how things have changed for you since we last contacted you.

Your answers will help improve our understanding about young people's experiences at school not only in England but also in Germany, Sweden and the Netherlands, where the study is also taking place.

Everyone who takes part will be given a £10 Amazon e-voucher. Your answers will be treated in complete confidence and it should not take more than 20 minutes to complete.
