Introduction and preliminary remarks

The GESIS Variable Report Series on the International Social Survey Programme Studies offers a comprehensive description of data on study and variable level. For each annual module individual Variable Reports are provided for final data set versions.

The reports are structured into six chapters:

Chapter one gives a brief overview of the worldwide ISSP project as a whole.

Chapter two provides the description of the respective ISSP study including bibliographic information, abstract and methodological specifications.

Chapter three contains information on study related survey materials which are absolutely essential to understand the data properly, followed by general information about the structure of ISSP data sets, documentation standards and variable coding frames in chapter four.

Chapter five provides a short explanation of the variable documentation itself.

Chapter six contains the core variable documentation: the documentation of each variable including complete question texts with all answer categories of the Basic Questionnaire, partially enriched with archival remarks. In addition, Variable Reports offer cross-tabulations over countries for all substantial and most of the demographic variables. Archive, protocol and country specific variables are usually shown by descriptive statistics or frequency distributions. All cross-tabulations, descriptive statistics and frequency distributions are based on unweighted data.

The data for the annual ISSP modules are collected by independent institutions in each country. The country data are integrated into one international data file, which is documented, distributed and long-term archived by the ISSP Archive, institutionally, the GESIS Data Archive for the Social Sciences (Leibniz Institute for the Social Sciences) in Cologne, Germany (<https://www.gesis.org/en/institute/departments/data-archive-for-the-social-sciences>). In every second year between ISSP modules 1997 and 2017, data processing, integration and harmonization have predominantly been prepared by our colleagues at JDS/ ASEP in Spain (<http://www.jdsurvey.net>).

Data access

Data for statistical analysis along with information about this data can be searched and accessed via the GESIS Search (<https://search.gesis.org?lang=en>) or via the search function on the GESIS homepage (<https://www.gesis.org/home>).

The GESIS Data Online Platform ZACAT (<https://zacat.gesis.org>) provides data documentations and additionally enables users to analyze data online.

The use and the results of GESIS Search and ZACAT are free of charge, download of data sets requires registration.

Data anonymization

According to data regulations in participating countries, only anonymized data are made available. Each national team is responsible for carefully checking the data in this respect before the deposit.

Usage requirements

To provide funding agencies with essential information about the use of archival resources and to facilitate the exchange of information about related research activities, all users of ISSP data are requested to send bibliographic citations for each completed manuscript or thesis abstracts to isspservice@gesis.org or if possible, please, directly send a copy of the publication to GESIS (GESIS-Leibniz-Institute for the Social Sciences, Dept. Data Archive - ISSP, Unter Sachsenhausen 6-8, D-50667 Cologne, Germany). Please, also observe the general notes on the usage regulations (https://www.gesis.org/fileadmin/user_upload/Usage_regulations.pdf).

1 ISSP Series Description

1.1 Series name

The International Social Survey Programme (ISSP)

1.2 Series information

The ISSP is a cross-national collaboration program, which has been continuously conducting annual surveys on diverse social science topics since 1985. The topics for each ISSP survey are proposed by delegates from ISSP member countries. Then, a Basic Questionnaire is composed by a committee, elected by the General Assembly before it is pretested in various countries. Starting in 1984 with four founding nations - Australia, Germany, Great Britain and the United States, the ISSP meanwhile has grown up to almost 50 member countries covering various cultures around the globe.

ISSP Modules 1985 – 2023:

- Citizenship: 2004/ 2014/ 2023*
- Environment: 1993/ 2000/ 2010/ 2020
- Family and Changing Gender Roles: 1988/ 1994/ 2002/ 2012/ 2022
- Health and Health Care: 2011/ 2021
- Leisure Time and Sports: 2007
- National Identity: 1995/ 2003/ 2013/ 2023*
- Religion: 1991/ 1998/ 2008/ 2018
- Role of Government: 1985/ 1990/ 1996/ 2006/ 2016
- Social Inequality: 1987/ 1992/ 1999/ 2009/ 2019
- Social Networks (no replications): 1986/ 2001/ 2017
- Work Orientations: 1989/ 1997/ 2005/ 2015

*combined

All ISSP members agree

1. to jointly develop modules addressing important areas of social science,
2. to field the modules either as an individual survey or as supplements to the regular national surveys and
3. to make the data available to the social science community as quickly as possible.

As the surveys are designed for replication they offer both cross-national and cross-time comparison, creating the base for a vast range of substantive and methodological research. Since there is no external fund agency, ISSP members fund their own surveys. Beyond that, ISSP committee members fund ISSP central coordination, networking, development of source questionnaires, or methodological work.

For more information on the ISSP in general, its working principles, contact addresses of ISSP members and principal investigators, please, visit the ISSP web site (<http://www.issp.org>).

3 Corresponding survey material

When dealing with international comparative data, data sets and documentation must be seen as two sides of the same coin. Even though ISSP members make huge efforts to produce comparable data in each country, there still remains a remarkable amount of country specific peculiarities in the contributions to the final, international data set. These country specific deviations from the standard either have to be harmonized if possible and definitely be documented, as they provide vital information for secondary analysts. Therefore, a set of procedures has been developed to take care for orderly technical preparation of national data sets and to allow for the systematic collection of required context information.

All corresponding survey materials are provided in English, only the national questionnaires are available in the national language(s) of each country.

3.1 Basic Questionnaire

The ISSP General Assembly concludes the design phase of an ISSP module after intensive discussions on the single items of the Basic Questionnaire roughly a year before the module is fielded. Two thirds of the module questions have to be replications from previous ISSP modules of the same subject. According to this, one third of the questions in each module are new. Subsequent to the mandatory module questions, some pre-selected optional questions can be added. Finally, ISSP member countries translate the British English Basic Questionnaire to their national language(s) as equivalent as possible.

Drafting group for the Basic Questionnaire on the Religion Module 2018:

- Czech Republic
- India
- Norway
- Turkey
- United States (Convenor): Tom W. Smith and Benjamin Schapiro
- Venezuela

3.2 Background Variables Standards and Documentation

Apart from the Basic Questionnaire, covering the substantial module variables, countries also have to collect responses on a defined set of ISSP Standard Background Variables, which predominantly contains demographic information. Since the ISSP often runs with larger national surveys, the background variables are mainly taken from these surveys. Thus, demographic issues cannot always be asked in a fixed form by all member countries, since they have to meet the demands of the national studies as well. As a result, the demographic variables for the ISSP need to be post-harmonized according to a developed set of common standards.

Over the past 30 years, the Background Variable Standard has constantly been improved:

The first set of background variables was established in 1985 with the first ISSP survey. Here countries agreed on collecting the same demographic information. This list of variables underwent a revision in 2001, now providing a coding frame for each background variable. It was valid until 2009.

In 2010 a new revision process of the ISSP Background Variables started. Beginning with the ISSP module 2010, this first revised version of the ISSP Background Variable Standard, concentrating mainly on variables containing work, occupational and partnership status information, came into effect. The second round of revisions, coming into effect in 2011, had its focus on the education variables, while the last change affected the variables measuring ethnicity, effective with the module 2013. Over the following years, several minor improvements came into effect. The current standard, and a basic history of changes are documented in Background Variable Guidelines which are providing detailed information and instructions on the variables' measurement goals, coding frames, filters and possible question texts. Additionally, the recommended question texts are summarized in a background variable Master Questionnaire.

Since 2004 countries document the post-harmonisation processes for each variable in a special documentation template provided by the Archive. This template, always adjusted to the current standard, offers detailed country specific information on administration, derivation, and coding of the ISSP Background Variables.

All relevant background variable documents are available from the ISSP webpages at GESIS.

3.3 National Study Description/ Technical Report

The National Study Descriptions are provided by the countries and include information on sample sizes, field dates, modes of data collection, sampling procedures, response rates and weighting processes. Starting with ISSP 2018, the National Study Descriptions are replaced by the National Technical Reports which contain additional methodological information, cross-nationally compiled in the Study Monitoring Report.

3.4 Characteristics of National Population

These documents provide statistical data on the composition of national populations in terms of gender, age, education and employment rates and, thereby, allow assessing the representativity of the national samples.

3.5 Where to find the survey materials and the data set of the ISSP Module of 2018 – Religion IV?

In the GESIS Search on the GESIS web under the link:

Beyond this, ZACAT enables users to perform basic online analyses like frequency distributions, cross-tabulations or regressions.

4 Data set structure and standards

ISSP data sets are processed and documented by the GESIS Data Archive.

In order to uniquely identify a data set, to each data set version a GESIS Study No., a Version No., and a Digital Object Identifier (doi) are assigned. The doi is linked to the Study Description, which is research- and retrievable via GESIS Search (<https://search.gesis.org?lang=en>). Metadata filled in the Study Description of ISSP 2018 data and associated with a doi are provided to the registration agency for social science data (da|ra).

The doi: 10.4232/1.13629 is assigned to the ISSP 2018 (v2.1.0).

4.1 Data set structure

Usually, the ISSP data sets are structured as follows:

1. Archive and Identification Variables

Administrative variables are used for identifying data sets, respondents and countries (GESIS Data Archive Study Number, GESIS Archive Version, Digital Object Identifier, Country Codes, ID Number of Respondent). The GESIS Archive Version variable includes the version and release date of the data set, composed as a string variable with three numbers (e.g. v1.0.0):

- The major number is incremented when there are changes in the composition of the data set (e.g. additional variables or cases).
- The minor or second number is incremented when significant errors have been fixed (e.g. coding errors, misleading value labels).
- The third or revision number is incremented when minor bugs are fixed (e.g. spelling errors in variable or value labels).

Country codes identify each case as belonging to one country. The country code variable, which was used according to a scheme leaning on international automobile identification codes in the beginning of the ISSP, was replaced by two country code variables based on the ISO Code 3166. One variable identifies countries as a whole, the other identifies possible subsamples, such as East and West Germany. The cross-tabulations shown in this Variable Report are based on a third, alphanumerical country code variable.

2. Substantial Variables

The substantial variables contain the mandatory module questions, often supplemented by optional questions.

Variable labels provide keywords based on the question text; these keywords are applied consistently if questions or question items are repeated over time. All substantial variables include the original question number of the Basic Questionnaire in the variable labels.

Generally, all variable names consist of the standard prefix “V” and the consecutive variable number.

ISSP 2015 is the first module in which numbering starts with the first substantial variable (v1= Q1). Before that time, numbering started with the archive variables followed by the substantial variables (V4, V5 or V6 = Q1).

3. ISSP Background Variables

In earlier ISSP modules, all variables are numbered consecutively, beginning with the archive variables and followed by substantial and background variables. The last variable of each data set usually is the variable on weighting. Later on, the background variables started with V200 et seq. Nowadays, these variable numbers are expressed by mnemonics with max. 8 characters (SEX, AGE, ...).

4. Country Specific Variables

Variables, which cannot be harmonized for various reasons, are usually presented as country specific variables. As a rule, variable names of country specific variables have country abbreviations as prefixes.

In some of the older ISSP studies, the principle of country specific variables is not used. Instead all country specific information is integrated into one variable.

5. Protocol Variables

There are five protocol variables in the latest ISSP modules. The variable “MODE” indicates the mode of data collection, while “SUBSCASE” indicates whether a respondent in the sample is an original case or a replacement for an originally selected respondent who was not available. The variables “DATEYR”, “DATEMO” and “DATEDY” provide information on the dates and periods of fielding.

ISSP surveys prior to 2010 do not include the three DATE variables for indicating the fielding date and ISSP surveys before 2007 do not contain the SUBSCASE variable.

Starting with ISSP 2019, there is the variable PARTIALS, indicating partially completed interviews.

6. Weight

The weight variable, if provided by the country, may include design and post-stratification weights. Please, consult the Technical Report for detailed information. There is no population weight available for the international comparison on the ISSP across countries.

4.1.1 Deviating data set structure in ZA7570

Within the bloc of optional questions (O1-O9/ v64-v81) there is an additional variable for South Korea for the sub-question O4b (KR_v68) due to the fact that the scale in the questionnaire of South Korea differs from the standard ISSP scale using a 5-point scale instead of the standard 4-point scale. South Korea’s data for O4b is therefore not comparable to the data of the other countries that fielded that question.

The flag variable “PARTIALS” in this ISSP module distinguishes three degrees of completeness for a returned questionnaire or interview. A questionnaire/ an interview with...

- 1) less than 50% of valid answers is defined as break-off (encoded to code -1)
- 2) between 50 and 80% of valid answers is defined as partial interview (encoded to code 0)
- 3) more than 80% of valid answers is defined as complete interview (encoded to code 1).

In accordance with AAPOR standards, the count is based on module questions that respondents were asked according to the routing. The answers “Can’t choose/ Don’t know” are considered as valid answers.

The ISSP decided that from module 2019 on break-off cases won’t be included in the data any longer.

4.2 Data preparation

On the basis of the Basic Questionnaire, covering the substantial variables and the standard core set of background variables, the Archive provides a Standard Setup for each individual ISSP module, which defines the variable and value labels for the integrated data file. All country data sets should be processed and prepared to match the structure of the Standard Setup before the material is deposited to the GESIS Data Archive for integration and archiving.

After conducting the national surveys, all collaborators are supposed to deposit their data at the GESIS Data Archive, where all the deposited data sets are prepared, integrated and merged into one single international data set, which is finally published.

During the data preparation process all national data sets are controlled for completeness, wild codes, for consistency of response patterns and question routing. Besides, all national data are checked for data duplicates. Decisions of deleting cases, which are identified as falsified, are taken by the principal investigators.

Three test routines have been proven useful to detect identical or similar records:

a) Test on uniqueness of ID numbers

All national data are checked for non-unique ID's (CASEID). Non-unique ID's most likely occur due to data input or data processing errors. They are recoded into unique ID numbers.

b) Test on identical responses

In statistical terms, true cases with identical responses across all survey items are almost impossible. If two or more records are fully identical to each other one record is kept, and the other duplicated record(s) are deleted.

c) Test on similar responses

A third test, based on the substantial module variables of the data set, detects records that are suspiciously similar to one another (=Near-Duplicates). Pairs or clusters of such records are examined closely. In case the suspicion is not confirmed, these cases are kept and documented in the National Study Description/ National Technical reports of the corresponding country.

However, if two or more records show a high similarity due to a high number of missing answers, no record is deleted. Such cases are identified by our test on partial cases (see chapter 4.1.1).

Moreover, national derivation processes from source to target codes in the background variables are controlled. Missing values, especially due to filter instructions are checked and recoded, if necessary. Errors, which are discovered during these procedures, are corrected or documented in cooperation with principal investigators.

However, not all inconsistencies are errors. Some inconsistencies might be owed to irrational response behavior or may be a consequence of different modes of data-collection in or across the participating countries during the fieldwork phase. Such inconsistencies are not eliminated during the data preparation process.

Complete machine-readable DDI-XML (see chapter 4.5) compliant documentation is created for all ISSP data sets by GESIS.

4.3 Coding frames

By general rule, the variables of the module questions adopt the coding frame as specified in the Basic Questionnaire, except for multiple response questions.

GESIS adds “Not applicable” (NAP) codes for questions that have filters. NAP indicates that only a subsample and not all of the respondents were asked. Also in the case of country specific variables, all the other countries are coded NAP.

GESIS adds “Not available” (NAV) for variables which in single countries may not have been conducted for whatever reason.

4.3.1 Country specific answer categories

ISSP data include some questions (variables) which have country specific answer categories such as DEGREE OF EDUCATION, RESPONDENT’S INCOME, FAMILY INCOME, PARTY AFFILIATION - later PARTY VOTED LAST ELECTION, REGION and SIZE OF COMMUNITY (the latter until ISSP 2009).

For country specific income variables with response categories, the data is recoded to midpoints of the categories.

Recently additionally provided as country specific variables: RELIGION (since ISSP 2010), ETHNIC GROUP (since ISSP 2013).

For occupation, official international occupation codes are used. While in the first years of the ISSP many countries used country specific occupation codes, ISCO 1988 has been established as a standard over the years. Starting with ISSP 2014, ISCO 1988 has been replaced by ISCO 2008.

The educational degree variable is available for each country as national variable with national-specific values. To facilitate international comparison, additionally, there is one harmonized variable using the country-specific information of all countries encoded to international standard classifications of education (ISCED 1997 for ISSP 2011- 2019/ ISCED 2011 starting with ISSP 2020).

4.3.2 Missing values

Missing value scheme (ISSP 1985-2018):

0: Not applicable (NAP), Not available (NAV)
 7 (97, 997, 9997, ...): Refused
 8 (98, 998, 9998, ...): Don’t know/ Can’t choose
 9 (99, 999, 9999, ...): No answer

From ISSP 2019 on the coding is:

-1 Not available (NAV)
 -4 Not applicable (NAP)
 -7 Refused
 -8 Don’t know/ Can’t choose
 -9 No answer

4.4 Weighting

Please note, that there is no total population weight to be used for international comparison. While all ISSP data sets contain a weighting variable, the weights in this variable do not incorporate a common weighting scheme that can be applied to all countries of the same ISSP module.

In the Study Description/Technical Report and/ or in the Background Variables Documentation of each country you will find more detailed information on the kind of weights that are provided. You can see, whether

- a design weight
- weights to adjust for non-response bias or
- a combination of these both weights above or
- different weighting procedures

are applied. Provision of a design weight is mandatory for countries using household-based sampling methods, as these require compensation for the lower selection probabilities of persons in larger households. If no weight is provided, the variable “Weight” is coded to 1.0. Otherwise the weighting factor is unequal 1.0 (but greater than 0).

For ISSP data we strongly recommend consulting the National Study Descriptions/ National Technical Reports for information on the weighting factor compositions and maybe even the Characteristics of National Population for more national context information. An initial overview of the national weighting procedures is provided in this Variable Report in chapter 6.

4.5 International documentation standard

The variable documentation is set up in accordance with the international metadata specifications for the social sciences, established by the Data Documentation Initiative <DDI>. The Variable Reports are based on the XML representation of DDI version 2. The documentation combines the exact wording and sequence of question components (question text, interviewer instruction, response categories, etc.) from the Basic Questionnaire with the variable description (variable name, values, and labels) of the data set. General remarks and comments referring to a certain variable are defined as variable notes. Notes mostly include additional information on country specific deviations from the ISSP standard, information about data inconsistencies any specific characteristics.

5 Guidance on variable documentation

The variable documentation part of this Variable Report describes each variable in the data file including all relevant information for this variable, such as the single question components or further notes and statistical distributions. The variable documentation is set up by means of the GESIS Dataset Documentation Manager (DSDM) and in accordance with international metadata standards (DDI-Codebook/XML).

In general, the following abbreviations are used to indicate countries or (sub-national) areas. As far as applicable, the ISO 3166-1 alpha-2 country codes have been applied and coded accordingly in the alphanumeric sample identification variable “c_alphan”.

The example below shows the information that appears in the variable documentation part of a Variable Report for a typical substantial variable. Results are usually broken down by country or presented as frequency counts in the case of country specific variables. In the case of variables with long lists of coded “real” values (e.g. ISCO08/ SPISCO08) results are not shown or, if appropriate, reflected by descriptive indicators such as mean or median (e.g. AGE, country specific variable RINC and INC). The descriptive parameters mean and/ or median are sometimes also presented, despite the fact, that an open answer scale was used (e.g. WRKHRS code 96 “96 hours or more”) to give an idea of the distribution of this variable across countries.

The complete question and answer texts are taken from the final Basic Questionnaire as provided.
All deviations are documented in this Variable Report.

Since there is neither an international weighting factor nor a national weighting factor which would be comparable for all participating countries, all frequencies and tables are calculated from unweighted data.

Header with DIGITAL OBJECT IDENTIFIER (DOI) linked to the Study Description.

VARIABLE NAME (serial number assigned by the archive) + VARIABLE LABEL as defined in the data set.

QUESTION NUMBER and full QUESTION TEXT from the Basic Questionnaire, including interviewer instructions, if applicable. The numbers or letters that may appear together with the original question number reflect the item order or indicate if a question was asked only in a single country (country abbreviation).

CODE VALUES occurring in the data for this variable and complete ANSWER TEXT from the Basic Questionnaire. Abbreviations commonly used in the code definitions are DK (don't know), NA (no answer), NAP (not applicable) and NAV (not available).

DERIVATION information refers to the construction principle of derived variables.

NOTE delineates additional explanatory text or archive remarks on data processing and other issues relevant for the understanding or application of the variable.

CROSS-TABULATION: The absolute frequencies base on unweighted data. The relative frequencies (row percent) refer to the valid cases (n valid sum), i.e. the total number of cases (n sum) reduced by the number of cases defined as missing data (M).

FREQUENCY COUNTS: For country specific variables relative frequencies are calculated in- and excluding missing data (M), i.e. percent on basis of all cases (sum) and valid percent on basis of the valid cases.

DESCRIPTIVE PARAMETERS: For some interval-scaled variables descriptive parameters such as minimum, maximum, and (if appropriate) median and mean are given on basis of the valid cases.

VERSION AND RELEASE DATE OF THE ARCHIVE DATA SET

This variable identifies the GESIS archive version number of this data set and the corresponding release date, recorded as a string.

The version number is composed of a sequence of three numbers. The major number is incremented when there are changes in the composition of the data set (e.g. additional variables or cases), the minor or second number is incremented when significant errors have been fixed (e.g. coding errors, misleading value labels), and the third or revision number is incremented when minor bugs are fixed (e.g. spelling errors in variable or value labels).

doi - Digital Object IdentifierDigital Object Identifier (DOI)

This variable holds the Digital Object Identifier (DOI) for the data set at hand as registered via the DA|RA registration agency for economic and social science data. Each data set version (see the variable 'version') has a unique persistent DOI.

For direct access to the complete archive dissemination package for this study, including new data set versions, the DOI needs to be appended to the resolver service URL:

<http://dx.doi.org/10.4232/1.13629>

In terms of good scientific practice, the DOI is an important element for the correct citation of a data set.

c_sample - Country/ Sample ISO 3166 Code (see country for codes for whole nation states)

Country/ Sample (see the variable 'country' for codes for whole nation states).

To indicate the subsamples within the ISSP countries a code on the basis of ISO 3166 was constructed. For all countries without subsamples the three digit ISO 3166 Code (as in the variable 'country') was used.

For those with subsamples a five digit numeric code is used. The first three-digits are based on the original ISO code and indicate the country. The following two-digit numeric appendices (01, 02) indicate the subsamples.

/ CH: Corrections for the answer category 'Christ Catholic': Two religious categories were offered with 'Catholic' in the name, 'Roman Catholic' and 'Christ Catholic'. The Christ Catholic is a very specific church in Switzerland. This denomination should not have appeared for a self-completion mode, because most of Catholics do not know this specific church, and just use 'Catholic' as common denomination of Roman Catholic. As the large majority of the respondents to this category are Catholics, all answers to this category are encoded as 'Roman Catholic' (with likely 8-10 cases of 155 being miscoded).

/ CH: Corrections for the answer category 'Christ Catholic': Two religious categories were offered with 'Catholic' in the name, 'Roman Catholic' and 'Christ Catholic'. The Christ Catholic is a very specific church in Switzerland. This denomination should not have appeared for a self-completion mode, because most of Catholics do not know this specific church, and just use 'Catholic' as common denomination of Roman Catholic. As the large majority of the respondents to this category are Catholics, all answers to this category are encoded as 'Roman Catholic' (with likely 8-10 cases of 155 being miscoded).

/ CH: The question documented above is not the original question of the national questionnaire, but the question proposal of the source questionnaire. The following instructions for implementation applied: Each country should use a formulation that is appropriate for its country, such as religious affiliation, belonging, following, etc. The list on religions should be modified to include all major religions of a country and the response categories should be fully compatible with the item on respondent's religion in the demographics (for Switzerland, see CH_RELIG).

/ CH: Corrections for the answer category 'Christ Catholic': Two religious categories were offered with 'Catholic' in the name, 'Roman Catholic' and 'Christ Catholic'. The Christ Catholic is a very specific church in Switzerland. This denomination should not have appeared for a self-completion mode, because most of Catholics do not know this specific church, and just use 'Catholic' as common denomination of Roman Catholic. As the large majority of the respondents to this category are Catholics, all answers to this category are encoded as 'Roman Catholic' (with likely 8-10 cases of 155 being miscoded).

v48 - Q29 R describes self as religious

Q29

Would you describe yourself as...

- 1 Extremely religious
- 2 Very religious
- 3 Somewhat religious
- 4 Neither religious nor non-religious
- 5 Somewhat non-religious
- 6 Very non-religious
- 7 Extremely non-religious
- 8 Can't choose
- 9 No answer

Note:

/ CZ: There is a major problem while translating the word 'religious' into Czech as there is no direct equivalent in Czech language. Therefore, the word 'duchovní' was used, which is close to the word 'spiritual' in English.

/ IT: The formulation of the previous Italian Religion questionnaire (ISSP 2008) was kept including the slightly different answer categories at the end of the scale: 1. Extremely religious, 2. Very religious, 3. Quite religious, 4. Neither religious nor non-religious, 5. Little religious, 6. Very little religious, 7. Definitely non-religious.

AGE - Age of respondent

BVQ_02a. AGE

What was your age at your last birthday, in full years?

COMMENT TO AGE: AGE can be asked as an alternative to asking about BIRTH; the ISSP prefers BIRTH being asked. If AGE is not asked directly, it must be computed by DATEYR 'year of the interview' minus BIRTH 'year of birth'.

AT: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

BG: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

CH: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

CL: How old are you?

CZ: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

DE: Month and year of birth taken from ALLBUS 2018. In order to calculate age, the month of interview was used (as reported by interviewer).

DK: How old are you?

ES: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

FI: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

FR: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

GB-GBN: What was your age last birthday?

GE: Age

HR: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

HU: Computed AGE=DATEY-BIRTH.

IL: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

IS: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

IT: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

JP: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH (based on Era and Year in Era).

KR: How old is [Person]?

LT: What was your age at your last birthday, in full years?

NO: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

NZ: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

PH: What was your age at your last birthday, in full years?

RU: How old are you?

SE: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

SI: Computed: AGE = 2019 - BIRTH.

SK: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

SR: Not asked, computed by BIRTH (year and month).

TH: How old are you? Write age __ (Please ask about the age or calculate from year of birth - B.E.).

TR: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

TW: Derived from date of birth (R.O.C. year).

US: Computed: AGE = DATEYR - BIRTH.

ZA: Age of respondent in completed years (copy from contact sheet).

15 15 years

105 105 years

999 No answer

in Unites States (US):

89 89 years or older

Note:

/ CL: BIRTH and AGE, both information was requested. Inconsistencies between the answers to BIRTH and AGE have not been recoded. However, age was checked because it is a relevant variable for the post-stratification weight (see WEIGHT).

/ GE: AGE and BIRTH have both been collected during the interview (AGE for the Kish grid and BIRTH during the interview). When calculating age based on year of survey and year of birth (AGE=DATEYR-BIRTH), there are some inconsistencies between the computed data and AGE. The differences range from -7 years to + 8 years of AGE. As it could not be identified which of the values is correct, the information was kept as recorded.

/ TH: Data for year of birth is computed from B.E. to A.D. by minus 543.

99 Refused

Note:

/ CH: As a majority of the Swiss population does an apprenticeship, it is important to avoid its inclusion in the first question. It is asked separately in the following question.

/ DK: Answers 50 years+ were recoded to missing.

/ FR: EDUCYRS=FR_EDUC minus 6 (school starting age); if still in education (MAINSTAT=3): AGE minus 6 (school starting age).

/ IS: Please note that EDUCYRS might not include full years of education. According to the 1907 law farmer's children were supposed to be at least 2 months a year in school and children who lived in towns for 6 months a year. This difference between rural and 'urban' areas stayed for a long time and in fact stayed in some form all up until 1991. Respondents could be adding up the months they attended school and transform that into whole years since they went to school for such a short periods at a time. When adding up, they might have attended school for one or two months each semester (for the age 7/ 8/ 9 until 12/ 13/ 14).

/ IS: Originally, this variable included decimal numbers to reflect the true conditions. The numbers were retrospectively rounded to whole numbers following the ISSP standard for this variable.

/ SE: Gymnasium = secondary school.

Note:

/ DE: Please note that the original data allowed for multiple answers. Respondents with multiple educational degrees are coded according to their 'highest' educational entry in DE_DEGR. For example, respondents with 'Abitur' and additional vocational training in the dual system (but no further academic education) are coded 8 'Vocational training, degree from German dual system'. Thus, the code 7 'Higher secondary (Abitur)' is only given to respondents who did not receive either any further academic or vocational training.

Note:

/ IS: From the year 1907 compulsory school was 4 years for children aged 10-14. At that time a majority lived in rural areas as opposed to the only bigger town, Reykjavík. According to the 1907 law farmer's children were supposed to be at least 2 months a year in school but children who lived in towns for 6 months a year. This difference between rural and 'urban' areas stayed for a long time and in fact stayed in some form all up until 1991. In 1926 compulsory school was for 8-14 years old and in 1936 for 7-14 years old. But even though this was the law the reality was often very different in the rural areas (where a big proportion of the nation lived) where exemptions were given both regarding the age of the children and how much time they spent in school. In 1946 the compulsory school was split up in two ('the children's level' and 'the teenager's level') where children finished 'barnaskólapróf' (national code 2) at the age of 12 (after 5 years of school) and could then add 'unglingapróf' (national code 3) which was two more years. Even though the laws changed in the years mentioned above it took more time for things to change in the rural areas so people who are older than perhaps 70 can easily have finished compulsory school even though EDUCYRS is very low. They still graduated with 'Barnaskólapróf' or 'Unglingapróf' and could move up to the next level (e.g. short vocational training on secondary school level).

/ IS: A few respondents chose 'Other' and wrote what other was. These answers were coded into 1-16. Therefore nobody has the value 17 in the final version of the data.

DEGREE - Comparative: highest completed degree of education (derived from nat_DEGR)

DEGREE: Comparative - Highest completed degree of education: Categories for international comparison

The aim of this variable is to measure the highest completed education level/ degree of the respondent in order to facilitate international comparison.

Procedure: The degree of education is asked country-specific (see variables AT_DEGR-ZA_DEGR). Then, the harmonized ISSP categories for the variable DEGREE are to be computed from the country-specific degree variables.

Correspondence lists between country-specific categories and categories of the ISSP DEGREE variable must be reported in detail in the BV documentation template for each country.

Since DEGREE is a slightly re-arranged subset of ISCED-97, instructions for actually coding ISCED-97 from nat_DEGR can be used in each country to support the coding of DEGREE.

Note:

/ CL: The bridging from the national education variable to the harmonized ISCED 97 variable is difficult as it does not match the classification used in Chile (see CL_DEGR). During the data integration, data for DEGREE were harmonized by means of CL_DEGR and EDUCYRS to meet the ISCED 97 standard. According to ISCED97 'primary schools are supposed to give students a sound basic education in reading, writing and mathematics ... They in principle cover six years of full time schooling.' In countries where there is no separate primary school, but the first school form is a compulsory school that ends after the 8-10 grade, codes 0 – 3 of the standardized DEGREE variable need to be constructed by means of the EDUCYRS 'Years of full-time schooling' variable: those, who report to have attended less than 6 years fall into category 0 'No formal schooling'. Those who report to have finished 6 years of schooling should be coded 1 'Primary School'. Who finishes compulsory school successfully has to be coded 2 'Lower Secondary'.

/ DE: Please note that the original data allows for multiple answers. Respondents with multiple educational degrees are coded according to their 'highest' educational entry in the ISSP degree variable. See also DE_DEGR.

/ FI: Respondents who finished compulsory school successfully (see FI_DEGR) are coded to category 2 'Lower secondary'.

/ GB-GBN: Primarily, the British DEGREE variable recorded qualification levels. For the sake of integration/ harmonization, respondents with 'No secondary qualifications' (see code 1 in GB_DEGR) originally encoded to 'No answer' (code 9) in DEGREE were retrospectively recoded at best for DEGREE based on the variable EDUCYRS (if EDUCYRS <6: DEGREE=0; if EDUCYRS 6+7 years: DEGREE=1; if EDUCYRS=8-11: DEGREE=2).

/ KR: Incomplete national educational categories were assigned to one level below in DEGREE.

/ TW: For respondents with elementary school as highest level of education (code 3 in TW_DEGR) the question on the number of years of school education (EDUCYRS) was used to assign respondents with at least 6 years of primary school into code 1 in DEGREE.

/ US: DEGREE codes 0-2 are constructed by using EDUCYRS next to US_DEGR.

NO: Are you, or have you ever been, in paid work? (We are interested in all kinds of work, even of just a few hours a week. Work for own family's business without a fixed salary counts as paid work.)

NZ: Which one of these categories best describes your current employment status? (If currently unemployed, permanently sick, student, doing housework or retired) Have you had paid work in the past?

PH: Are you currently working for pay, did you work for pay in the past, or have you never been in paid work?

RU: Do you have a paid work (including work as an employee for private persons or own business and also if currently on maternity leave or child rearing leave)? And if no - have you ever had paid work in the past or have you never had paid work?

SE: Are you currently working for pay, did you work for pay in the past, or have you never been in paid work? By work we mean doing income-producing work, as an employee, self-employed or working for your own family's business. If you temporarily are not working for pay because of temporary illness/ parental leave/ vacation/ strike etc., please refer to your normal work situation.

SI: Are you currently in paid work, used to have paid work or never had paid work?

SK: Are you/ have you ever been working for pay? (If respondent is on sickness leave, on maternal leave or similar but otherwise is employed (works) - use code 1 'Currently in paid work'. Paid work includes employed as well as self-employed (company owners, working for family company and similar))!

SR: Derived from 'At what age did you start working?' and 'At what age did you start with your current job?' and 'If you are currently not working: in what year did you stop working?'

TH: The current working status: ('Work' means doing income-producing work as an employee, self-employee, or working for your own business, for at least 1 hour per week; if R temporarily not working for pay because of temporary illness/ parental leave/ vacation/ strike etc. refer to normal situation.)

TW: Are you currently working for pay, did you work for pay in the past, or have you never been in paid work?

ZA: Are you currently working for pay, did you work for pay in the past, or have you never been in paid work?

- 3 I have never had paid work

Note:

/ CZ: It is common in the Czech context to take advantage of a relatively long maternity (28 weeks) and parental (until child turns 3) leave, therefore persons on maternity/ parental leave were coded as other here (not treated as economically active unless they are simultaneously working for pay for at least one hour per week).

Note:

/ CL: EMPREL has been provided according to the former format for EMPREL following the ISSP Guidelines in effect until ISSP 2017, including the four categories 1 'Employee', 2 'Self-employed without employees', 3 'Self-employed with employees' and 4 'Working for own family's business'.

Unfortunately, the former variable NEMPLOY about the number of employees has not been asked. Hence, no information is available for the self-employed respondents about their number of employees. They were encoded to code 6 'Self-employed with employees; no numbers available'.

/ DE: Farmers with less than 50 ha are coded self-employed without employees; farmers with 50 ha and above are coded self-employed with 1-9 employees.

/ DK: The data generated with the question documented above was used to generate both EMPREL and TYPORG2 (comp. 'Background Variable Documentation').

/ ES: The Spanish questionnaire for ISSP 2018 includes an instruction for interviewers to make this question refer to the main wage earner in the household if the respondent has never worked (3 in WORK). These data are not included here.

/ FR: By mistake, the answer option 'Works for a private firm' was not included in the question on WRKTYP. Cases for this answer option could be created, however, the number of cases may be slightly lower than in other years.

/ GB-GBN: Category 5 'Working for own family's business' can't be computed.

/ IS: Those who are self-employed with employees answered a second question embedded in this one. The second half is a question on the number of employees.

/ RU: EMPREL, TYPORG1 and TYPORG2 are derived from the same question.

/ SE: For ISSP 2018, EMPREL was still computed according to the old format and the question of writing in the number of employees (previously derived to NEMPLOY), which was used for ISSP 2017 and earlier. Based on this information it was possible to distinguish between the self-employed having less than 10 or more than 10 employees. There were a few cases where the number of employees were missing. These were put in EMPREL category 3 'Self-employed with 1 to 9 employees' since it is very unusual that self-employed have more than 10 employees.

/ SR: Hustling is typical for Suriname; in the Surinamese situation hustling means working without a contract. For example: somebody who sells on the street, or who works as a cleaning woman for a private person.

/ SR: EMPREL has been asked following the question format in effect until ISSP 2017 including the former four answer categories. However, the current format could be computed with hindsight because for the self-employed respondents with employees, the information on the number of employees is available (former variable NEMPLOY).

/ TW: EMPREL, TYPORG1 and TYPORG2 were derived from the same question.

/ ZA: EMPREL has been asked following the question format in effect until ISSP 2017 including the former four answer categories. However, the current format could be computed with hindsight because for the self-employed respondents with employees, the information on the number of employees is available (former variable NEMPLOY).

Note:

/ DK: Due to a filtering error in the questionnaire, all respondents who answered that they are employed in the public sector were not directly asked about the purpose of the business they work in. This has been compensated for by imputing the value '2' for these respondents for the variable 'TYPORG1'.

/ ES: The Spanish questionnaire for ISSP 2018 includes an instruction for interviewers to make this question refer to the main wage earner in the household if the respondent has never worked (3 in WORK). These data are not included here.

/ FR: By mistake, the answer option 'Works for a private firm' was not included in the question on the French variable 'WRKTYP'. Yet, cases for this answer option could be created for TYPORG1, however, the number of cases for this category may be slightly lower than in other years.

/ FR: 'Works for publicly owned firm', 'Works for a private firm', 'Self employed' and 'Works for family's business' are encoded to code 1 'For-profit'. 'Works for government or local communities' and 'Works for an association, a mutual company or a cooperative' are encoded to code 2 'Non-profit'.

/ GB-GBN: The data includes self-employed as for-profit, just like private sector firms or companies. Non-profit organisations comprise nationalised industries or public corporations (Post Office, BBC), other public sector organisations (Civil Service, NHS hospitals, Police) or charity and voluntary sector organisations (churches, trade unions).

/ GE: Pre-Testing showed that in some cases people are/ were (self-)employed informally or employed by individuals who could not be classified as a profit/ non-profit organisation. Therefore, this question was fielded with the additional answer option 'none'.

/ NZ: For-profit includes overseas-owned private sector companies or firms + NZ-owned private sector companies or firms + working for own family's business + self-employed. Non profit includes public sector organisations (e.g. government department, local authority, state-owned enterprise) + non-profit/ charity/ welfare organisations.

/ RU: EMPREL, TYPORG1 and TYPORG2 are derived from the same question.

/ TW: EMPREL, TYPORG1 and TYPORG2 were derived from the same question.

/ US: In the US questionnaire, there has been a third category 'Government or government agency' besides the two ISSP standard categories 'For-profit organisation' and 'Non-profit organisation'. Respondents who answered to the third category were encoded to code 2 'Non-profit organisation'.

0 NAP (Code 3 in WORK)

1 Public employer

2 Private employer

8 Don't know

9 No answer

in Great Britain (GB-GBN):

8 Don't know incl. other type of organization

in Georgia (GE):

6 None

9 Refused

Note:

/ CH: Not asked if self-employed; self-employed and respondents working for own family's business were recoded on 'Private employer' in TYPORG2 a posteriori.

/ DK: The data generated with the question documented above was used to generate both EMPREL and TYPORG2 (comp. 'Background Variable Documentation').

/ ES: The Spanish questionnaire for ISSP 2018 includes an instruction for interviewers to make this question refer to the main wage earner in the household if the respondent has never worked (3 in WORK). These data are not included here.

/ FR: By mistake, the answer option 'Works for a private firm' was not included in the question on WRKTYP. Cases for this answer option could be created, however, the number of cases may be slightly lower than in other years.

/ FR: 'Works for government or local communities' and 'Works for publicly owned firm' are encoded to code 1 'Public'. 'Works for an association, a mutual company or a cooperative', 'Works for a private firm', 'Self employed' and 'Works for family's business' are encoded to code 2 'Private'.

/ GB-GBN: The data includes self-employed as private employer, just like private sector firms or companies and charity and voluntary sector organisations (churches, trade unions). Public employers comprise nationalised industries or public corporations (Post Office, BBC) and other public sector organisations (Civil Service, NHS hospitals, Police).

/ GE: Pre-Testing showed that in some cases people are/ were (self-)employed informally or employed by individuals who could not be classified as a public/ private organisation. Therefore, this question was fielded with the additional answer option 'none'.

/ NZ: Due to lack of details, non-profit organisations are encoded to 'public'.

/ RU: EMPREL, TYPORG1 and TYPORG2 are derived from the same question.

/ TW: EMPREL, TYPORG1 and TYPORG2 were derived from the same question.

in Great Britain (GB-GBN):

- 0 Not available

in New Zealand (NZ):

- 0 NAP (Code 3-5 in MARITAL + Singles)

Note:

/ BG: In fact, widowed, divorced and respondents living separately as well as unmarried singles were not asked whether they live together with a partner or not. Respondents living separately were retrospectively encoded to PARTLIV code 2 'Yes, have partner; don't live in same household' to take account of the fact that couples are often not yet officially separated but already live in different households.

/ HU: Not asked if the respondent is married and lives with his/ her wife/ husband. Married respondents living together were encoded in hindsight during the data preparation into code 1 'Yes, have partner; live in same household'.

/ NZ: 'No partner' (code 3) was no answer option in the question on PARTLIV, since PARTLIV was filtered by MARITAL and only married respondents, respondents in a civil union or in de facto-relationship were asked about whether they live with the partner.

/ RU: PARTLIV and MARITAL are derived from the same question. Divorced and widowed respondents are assigned to 'No partner'. Actually, they were neither asked about whether they have a partner nor if they are living with a partner.

/ US: PARTLIV was recoded from the GSS items POSSLO/ POSSLOQ, each of which was asked to half of the ISSP sample. Both items offer identical answers for categories 1 ('I am married and living in the same household as my husband or wife'), 3 ('I have a husband or wife or steady partner, but we don't live in the same household') and 4 ('I don't have a steady partner'). Category 2 is however different (POSSLQ: 'I am living as married and my partner and I together live in the same household'/ POSSLOQ: 'I have a steady partner, and we live in the same household').

/ US: The US data does not request further partner information for respondents whose partners (as opposed to spouses) do not cohabitate.

in Great Britain (GB-GBN):

0 NAP (Code 3-6 in MARITAL + if partner not living in the same household)

in New Zealand (NZ):

0 NAP (Code 0 in PARTLIV - separated, divorced, widowed or singles)

in Unites States (US):

0 NAP (Code 3 in PARTLIV or partner not cohabiting with respondent)

Note:

/ US: During the interview, respondents were asked the same question regardless of partner or spouse, with a screener to modify question text. The US data capture all spouse variables regardless of habitation status. The US data, however, capture only information from partners if living together, and not information from non-cohabitating partners. Therefore the NAP code 0 contains more cases than the code 3 cases from PARTLIV.

/ CH: Self-employed spouses/ partners working without employees were filtered online, for respondents' of the paper questionnaire version whose spouses/ partners are working without employees correction a posteriori - self-employed without employees are recoded on code 2 'No'.

/ US: During the interview, respondents were asked the same question regardless of partner or spouse, with a screener to modify question text. The US data capture all spouse variables regardless of habitation status. The US data, however, capture only information from partners if living together, and not information from non-cohabitating partners. In addition, in US data, this question is asked primarily of respondents, and only of spouses or [cohabiting] partners if the respondent does not work. This is not in line with ISSP standards, and as such produces a higher proportion of NA responses.

/ CZ: SPISCO08 was coded from three text variables describing the job. Some jobs were coded using 5-digit extended CZ-ISCO, see https://www.czso.cz/csu/czso/klasifikace_zamestnani_-cz_isco-. Recoding into 4-digit ISCO-08 (unit groups) was made where necessary.

/ DE: Constructed from spouse's/ partner's current occupation. The survey does not provide information on spouse's or partner's last occupation. Missing answers are recoded into the filter code 0 'NAP'.

/ FR: French classification of the occupations and the socioprofessional categories (PCS 2003) used, then transferred into ISCO 2008.

/ NO: As source code, the Norwegian standard classification of occupations 2008 (STYRK-08) - based on the International Standard Classification of Occupations 2008 (ISCO-08) - has been used.

/ SR: Open question, verbatim answers were coded into ISCO88, then converted to ISCO08. If no answer to the open question, the answer to the showcard question was taken including 11 different work types.

/ US: US Census 2010 codes recoded to ISCO08.

/ US: During the interview, respondents were asked the same question regardless of partner or spouse, with a screener to modify question text. The US data capture all spouse variables regardless of habitation status. The US data, however, capture only information from partners if living together, and not information from non-cohabitating partners.

2 Yes, previously but not currently

- 3 No, never
- 7 Refused
- 8 Don't know
- 9 No answer

in Japan (JP):

- 0 NAP (Code 3 in WORK)

in Unites States (US):

- 1 Yes, belong
- 2 Not used
- 3 No, don't belong

Note:

/ NZ: Actually, the web questionnaire included a filter instruction for respondents who have or have had no paid work currently or in the past.

/ US: The US questionnaire only asks about the current union membership for respondents (and their spouses). As a result, the data omit code 2 'Yes, previously, but not currently'.

/ US: The number of missing answers is very high due to the fact that UNION was only asked on 4/6 ballots in the GSS. Each of the 2017 and 2018 ISSP questionnaires was asked on 3/6 ballots. The result of this pattern is that all respondents who got the 2017 ISSP questionnaire also got UNION, and only 1/3 of those who got the 2018 questionnaire got UNION.

Note:

/ CH: Corrections for the answer category 'Christ Catholic': Two religious categories were offered with 'Catholic' in the name, 'Roman Catholic' and 'Christ Catholic'. The Christ Catholic is a very specific church in Switzerland. This denomination should not have appeared for a self-completion mode, because most of Catholics do not know this specific church, and just use 'Catholic' as common denomination of Roman Catholic. As the large majority of the respondents to this category are Catholics, all answers to this category are encoded as 'Roman Catholic' (with likely 8-10 cases of 155 being miscoded).

Note:

/ CH: Information about parties in Switzerland

The last national elections were held in 2015; the categories were adjusted accordingly. As for ISSP 2016 + 2017, one party was added to the list: 'Solidarity'. Overall, there was no substantive change in the 2015 federal election. The Swiss People's Party has become more important. Left (Green Party) and right ecology (Green Liberal Party) have lost many votes. The far left recovers one seat (for the Solidarity party). The fusion within the Liberals and the Radicals seems to have been achieved: there is no longer any mention of the old parties (which were kept in the list).

The Liberals (Right, conservative)

After some years of political alliance between the Radicals and the much smaller Liberal Party, in January 2009, they merged to form the new party 'FDP.The Liberals'. The former FDP was founded in 1894, growing out of the liberal, radical and democratic movements that dominated the first decades of the federal state. The Liberal Party as well has roots going back as far as in the 19th century and was developed mainly in French-speaking Switzerland. Very much like its precursors, 'FDP. The Liberals' relies on classical liberalism. It has two members in the Federal Council and 30 seats in the National Council. With a number of 130.000, it has by far the most members of all Swiss parties. FDP.The Liberals too, they form their own faction in the National Council and are assigned 11 seats in the Council of States.

Christian-Democratic People's Party (Centre-right, conservative)

This party has been founded by conservative Catholics, who lost the short civil war of 1847. Nevertheless, they are currently also present in Protestant cantons, with more eccentric positions. They claim for a social market economy. It is the second largest party in terms of membership, but the smallest of the four-party coalition government. They form a faction of 31 seats with the evangelical people's party, in which they hold 28 seats. In the Council of States they are assigned 13 seats.

Social Democratic Party (Centre-left)

As a merge of several cantonal workers' parties, the socialist/socialdemocratic Party has been founded in 1888. It is currently the most pro-european party in Switzerland. It ranks fourth in terms of membership, but the second biggest in terms of votes and seats (46) in the National Council. There, they form their own faction. In the Council of States they are represented with 11 seats.

Swiss People's Party (Right, conservative)

Founded in 1936 from an association of farmers and artisans, this party became more and more populist, especially its right wing. Since the 1990's, they adopted certain anti-foreigner positions from the far-right. Quite closely linked to the fact that they are represented by only one member in the Federal Council (government), they consider themselves as an opposition party. In terms of their share of total votes, they form the biggest Swiss party, while they are outreached by the Christian Democrats and the 'FDP.The Liberals' in terms of membership. The national elections of 2011 marked the end of a 20-year period of steady growth in their share of total votes with a climax of 28.9% in the 2007 national elections. They form their own faction in an alliance with the Lega (2 Seats) and a resulting total of 56 seats in the National Council (total: 200 seats). In the Council of States they've gained 5 out of 46 seats.

Conservative Democratic Party of Switzerland (Centre-right)

The Conservative Democratic Party was created in November 2008 as a split of the Swiss People's Party. The Swiss People's Party (UDC, SVP) becoming more and more populist, a fraction of this party split from it, creating the more moderate 'Conservative Democratic Party of Switzerland'. It has one Federal Councillor (Eveline Widmer-Schlumpf), 9 seats in the National Council and one in the Council of the States. They put forward conservative values and economic liberalism. This party is represented by its own faction in the national parliament.

Christian Social Party (Centre-left, liberal)

In 1997, merging cantonal groups have founded the Christian-social Party to create a new party on the national level. As opposed to other Christian parties, they are very liberal on societal issues such as abortion and homosexual partnerships. They share social democratic views on redistribution and take strong environmentalist positions, why they may be labelled a 'leftist Christian party'. After 2011 elections, they hold no seats in national parliaments.

Swiss labour party (Far left)

This party was founded in 1944 by the illegal Communist Party of Switzerland. In 2011, they lost their only seat in the parliament and are no longer represented.

Green party (Left, centre left)

Born from the environmental movement, this party was found in 1983 and gained strength throughout the 1980s. It is the strongest party not represented in the national executive government. They currently hold 15 seats in the national parliament and form their own faction. In the Council of States they are represented with 2 seats.

Green liberal party (Centre, liberal)

Founded in 2007, they immediately won a seat in the Council of the states and three in the national council. Since then, they successfully expanded in the cantonal elections. Sharing the idea of environmentalism with the Green Party, its party program differs strongly with respect to regulation of the economy. It aims to combine moderate economic liberalism, liberalism on civil liberties and environmental sustainability. They represent 12 seats in the National Council and form their own faction.

Swiss democrats (Far right)

Founded in 1975 as a split from the Evangelical People's Party. Beyond their social conservatism and christian values, they are eurosceptic and support strong anti-foreigner positions. No more in the national parliament since end 2007 (where they held one seat in the council of the states).

Federal Democratic Union (Far right)

The Christian, national-conservative Federal Democratic Union lost their only seat in parliament in the 2011 elections, while they won two seats in the 2003-election and one in 2007. They stand for value-oriented, biblical positions and strongly refuse European integration of Switzerland.

Evangelical People's Party (Centre)

Founded in 1919, this small protestant party stands rather centre-left on some issues (redistribution, education, immigration, environment), but is conservative on others (abortion, family, euthanasia). The economic position is centrist. Alliance with the Christian Democrats, being in the same faction at the national level.

Lega dei Ticinesi (Far right)

Founded in 1991, this populist party refers to the model of the Italian Lega Lombarda. It defends national conservative and isolationist positions and is one of the major parties in the Canton Ticino. With their two seats in the National Council they belong to the Swiss People's Party faction.

Movement of the Citizens of French-speaking Switzerland (Far right)

In 2005, a member of the Swiss People's Party and a former member of the Liberal Party founded the (local) patriotic protest party 'Mouvement des Citoyens Genevois'. After their first appearance in national elections in 2007 in the canton of Geneva, in 2011 they participated also in the canton of Vaud. They bring forward anti-foreigner positions, especially against frontier workers from France. Contrarily, they take traditionally leftist stances in social welfare discourses. They are represented by one seat in the National Parliament, without belonging to a faction.

Solidarity is an anticapitalist, ecologist and feminist party, present in French-speaking Switzerland, in the cantons of Geneva, Vaud, Neuchâtel and Fribourg, as well as in the German Swiss canton of Basel. Solidarity refers to the anticapitalist, ecologist and feminist left. The organization advocates a revolutionary transformation of the society based on socialist bases and democratic values. The party invests a lot into social movements; its members militate actively in labor unions, in diverse associations of the labor movement, in anti-globalization movement and are active in many other activities in relation with the class struggle. In Switzerland, Solidarity is a party associated with the Labour party (POP-PST).

Not asked.

Note:

/ PH: Information is not integrated into the international data file since Philippine politics generally has a weak party system, it is personality driven. The leaders are directly elected and not due to their party affiliations. This is the reason why normally voters don't even recall the party affiliation of the leader they just elected.

/ ES: Parties with codes 5 to 12 in ES_PRTY are non-state wide parties, i.e. regionalist/ nationalist parties (or coalitions that include this type of party) whose main axis of identification/ electoral competition is not only the left-right one, but also centre-periphery (codes 07, 08, 10, 11 and 12), or just regionally based parties that so far have participated in general elections forming alliances with the new party Podemos (codes 05, 06 and 09). Unidos Podemos (code 03) is the electoral alliance formed by Podemos and the United Left for the 2016 general elections (which the question refers to).

/ ES: Data to construct PARTY_LR come from the mean location of parties in the left-right scale in surveys CIS Study 3156 (October 2016) and CIS study 3164 (January 2017), as well as from the 2014 Chapel Hill Expert Survey (for further information see BV document for Spain).

/ LT: Code 6 'Other' includes parties of ethnic minorities, agrarian, nationalist, green and populist parties.

/ SR: Not applicable in Surinamese politics.

/ TW: This kind of party affiliation (left-right) does not fit for Taiwan's political situation.

Note:

/ ZA: Given the apartheid history in South Africa, the race categorization of white, black (African), Indian and coloured is very commonly understood in South Africa. This is the most common variable used to categorise various the races. Among the African people there are various tribes, and the most common way – although this is seldom used-to ethnize the African group would be to use the African language that they speak, i.e. Sesotho, Setswana, Sepedi, Siswati, IsiNdebele, Isixhosa, Isizulu, Xitsonga, Tshivenda. In terms of the White groups (Europeans) it is fairly uncommon to ask origin country and the only further distinction is again based on language that is the Afrikaans speakers and the English speakers. Coloured people and the Indian population are generally treated as a homogenous group with no further distinction.

HOMPOP - How many persons in household

BVQ_28. HOMPOP

Including yourself, how many people - including children - usually live in your household?

Adults of 18 years and older

Children between [school entry age] to 17 years of age

Children below [school entry age]

This makes a total of how many people? -> HOMPOP

COMMENT ON HOMPOP: Depending on interview mode, different options for presenting the questions BVQ_28.-BVQ_31. would be preferable. One option is a household grid that can easily be presented in self-administered modes. In a face to face interview, the interviewer has the chance to ask for the different groups of household members separately and discuss possible inconsistencies, so the above mentioned grid can be broken up into individual questions.

NZ: Summed from HHADULT, HHCHILDR, HHTODD.

PH: Including yourself, how many people – including children – usually live in your household?

TH: Including yourself, how many persons are there in your home? (Include who is temporarily away but expected to come back and who is temporarily staying within the household.)

in Austria (AT):

- 8 Eight or more persons

Note:

/ DE: If other people living in the household, detailed household list is asked; number of people taken from that household list information.

/ GE: Field is conducted with Computer Assisted Personal Interviewing method, therefore interviewer specifies number of household members before starting interview.

/ KR: Question was asked for a maximum of 10 persons.

/ SE: This is a new question version, introduced in 2016, of trying to get correct information regarding the household composition. This is the best solution so far, much less errors compared to previous attempts in former surveys. However, still some respondents do not seem to be able to fill in the right figures. Therefore, the household variables HOMPOP, HHADULT, HHCHILDR, HHTODD may contain some measurement errors.

/ SR: The questions on household size is asked separately from the ages of the members of the household, which leads to inconsistencies.

Additionally, there was an inconsistent formulation in the question for HOMPOP: the intro said 'include respondent & partner', the question itself 'exclude respondent & partner'; HOMPOP was reconstructed by consulting questionnaires and response forms, some inconsistencies however remain.

/ SE: This is a new question version, introduced in 2016, of trying to get correct information regarding the household composition. This is the best solution so far, much less errors compared to previous attempts in former surveys. However, still some respondents do not seem to be able to fill in the right figures. Therefore, the household variables HOMPOP, HHADULT, HHCHILDR, HHTODD may contain some measurement errors.

/ TH: Primary school starts at the age of 6 years.

Note:

/ DK: Annual income before deduction of taxes in Danish Kroner (DKK); midpoints of the income classes are coded. In the survey respondents were asked for their average monthly income. Annual income was subsequently computed as 12 times the monthly income reported and grouped into 10 brackets.

/ DK: Please note that there is a markedly high proportion of respondents in category 'Below 100.000 DKK per year, gross'. This may be due to the new wording of the question in which respondents are asked to indicate their average monthly salary instead of their average annual salary.

/ DK: Annual income before deduction of taxes in Danish Kroner (DKK); midpoints of the income classes are coded. In the survey respondents were asked for their households average monthly income. Annual income was subsequently computed as 12 times the monthly income reported and grouped into 14 brackets.

/ DK: Please note that there is a markedly high proportion of respondents in category 'Below 100.000 DKK per year, gross'. This may be due to the new wording of the question in which respondents are asked to indicate their average monthly salary instead of their average annual salary.

MARITAL - Legal partnership status

BVO_34. MARITAL

What is your current legal marital status?

COMMENT TO MARITAL: The aim of this variable is to measure the current 'legal' marital status of the respondent. 'Living as married' or 'de facto married' is no legal partnership status and therefore not of relevance to this variable. Note that MARITAL must not be filtered by responses to PARTLIV.

AT: Now some questions about your life situation: What is your marital status?

BG: What is your marital status?

CH: What is your current legal marital status?

CL: What is your current marital status?

CZ: What is your marital status?

DE: What is your marital status? Are you...?

DK: What is your current legal marital status?

ES: Which of the following best describes your current situation?

FI: Are you currently...?

FR: Are you...?

GB-GBN: Derived variable from two questions, showing the legal marital status for all respondents who answered those questions.

GE: What is your current legal marital status?

HR: Marital status of respondent (legal status)

HU: Derived from 'What is your marital status?' and 'Are you living with a partner?' and 'Have you registered your partnership before a notary?'

IL: What is your current legal marital status?

IS: What is your current marital status?

IT: What is your current legal marital status?

JP: What is your current legal marital status?

KR: Is [PERSON] now married, widowed, divorced, separated, cohabiting, or never married?

LT: What is your current legal marital status?

NO: What is your current legal marital status?

NZ: Which one of these categories best describes your current marital status?

PH: What is your current legal marital status?

RU: What is your marital status?

SE: What is your current legal marital status?

SI: What is your marital status?

SK: What is your current marital status?

SR: What is your current legal marital status?

TH: What is your current marital status?

TR: Which one of the following is more suitable for your current marital status?

TW: What is your current marital status?

US: Are you currently – married, widowed, divorced, separated, or have you never been married?

ZA: What is your current marital status?

1 Married

2 Civil partnership

- 3 Separated from spouse/ civil partner (still legally married/ still legally in a civil partnership)
- 4 Divorced from spouse/ legally separated from civil partner
- 5 Widowed/ civil partner died
- 6 Never married/ never in a civil partnership, single
- 7 Refused
- 9 No answer

in Austria (AT):

- 3 Not used
- 4 Divorced/ Separated

in Iceland (IS):

- 2 In registered cohabitation

in South Africa (ZA):

- 2 Never married but engaged
- 6 Including never married and not engaged

Note:

/ AT: The national questionnaire conflates the marital status categories 'Divorced' and 'Separated'. It is not possible to properly separate both categories in retrospect.

/ BG: Since living like a couple is no legal marital status, observations of the original answer category 2 'I live with a partner without marriage' has been recoded into the harmonized code 6 'Never married/ never in a civil partnership, single' during the data preparation.

/ CH: Code 2 'Civil partnership' includes same-sex partnerships registered on federal level.

/ CL: Up to 2004 there was no law regulating divorce in Chile. The legal way to end up a marriage was through a process of annulment (encoded to code 3).

/ CL: Civil partnerships are allowed in Chile since 2015 (for heterosexual partnerships and for same-sex partnerships).

/ CZ: Code 2 means 'Registered partnership' (registrované partnerství), possibility to register partnerships for same-sex partners.

/ DE: Civil partnerships means same-sex, formally legalised partnerships.

/ FI: Code 2 'Civil partnership' includes registered partnerships available for same-sex couples.

/ FR: Code 2 includes 'Pacsé(e)', a French contract of civil partnership.

/ HR: Civil partnership is legally defined as living in a common household for a minimum period of 3 years and/ or joint parenthood.

/ IL: The wording used for code 2 translates as 'Living with a regular spouse with a joint life agreement'.

/ IS: Code 2 includes 'In registered cohabitation'.

/ IT: Code 2 includes same-sex unions ('Unione civile').

/ LT: There is no legal civil partnership in Lithuania.

/ NO: Code 2 'Civil partnership' includes registered partner (same sex).

/ NZ: Original category 'De facto' was converted to code 6 'Never married'. Category 2 includes civil unions (same-sex partners).

/ SE: Code 2 'Civil partnership' reads 'Registered partnership' (same-sex partners).

/ SR: Code 2 'Civil partnership' includes 'Common law marriage'.

/ US: MARITAL now encompasses both opposite-sex and same-sex marriages (code 1). The US General Social Survey uses POSSLQ and POSSLQY (see note in PARTLIV for US) to track long-term cohabitation, but does not ask about civil partnerships separate from marriage (which means that code 2 is not used).

/ ZA: Previously there were not many of these types of marriages, but the common form of African marriages (Lobola) are now recognized under code 2 'Siviele Verhouding'.

Note:

/ AT: Answers to the last answer option were assigned manually to the right country code in retrospect.

/ BG: Open-ended question.

/ CL: Open-ended question.

/ CZ: Countries coded 1-8 including text answers from code 9 were encoded into ISO 3166 country codes.

/ DE: Former Eastern territories of Germany coded as Germany.

/ ES: Open-ended question for those who were not born in Spain. Countries coded based on a country list used by the Spanish Statistic Institute, then transferred into ISO 3166 codes.

/ FI: Open-ended question.

/ FR: Open-ended question.

/ IL: Open-ended question.

/ IS: Behind the second option there was an open textbox. The answers were coded afterwards. In order to avoid disclosing too much information about the respondents, the following (no official ISO 3166) codes have been used where the frequency was less than 5: code 930 for Europe, 935 for Latin and South America, 940 for Africa, 960 for other countries/ regions.

/ IT: Open-ended question.

/ NO: Data in F_BORN and M_BORN have been partly deleted and partly recoded/ swapped to avoid disclosure risk.

/ RU: Open-ended question.

/ SE: Category 2 open responses recoded following the ISO 3166. Category 1 recoded to 752. Countries not existing today were recoded to present ones, e.g. Soviet Union coded as Russian Federation. Those ticking the box that mother or father not born in Sweden but did not write in country of origin were coded as 'Don't know'.

/ SI: Open-ended question. Expected most frequent answers were pre-coded for CAPI, other answers were coded as 'other' and then included in additional variable. Both variables were used to create F_BORN.

/ SK: Category 3 open responses recoded following ISO 3166.

/ TH: Open-ended question, subsequently countries encoded to ISO 3166.

/ US: Respondents are not asked for parents' country of birth, only if their parents (one or both) were born in the United States or not. As a result, only two codes are available for the US: Born in the US (code 840 'United States') and born outside the US (code 950 'Outside of COUNTRY').

Note:

/ AT: Answers to the last answer option were assigned manually to the right country code in retrospect.

/ BG: Open-ended question.

/ CL: Open-ended question.

/ CZ: Countries coded 1-8 including text answers from code 9 were encoded into ISO 3166 country codes.

/ DE: Former Eastern territories of Germany coded as Germany.

/ ES: Open-ended question for those who were not born in Spain. Countries coded based on a country list used by the Spanish Statistic Institute, then transferred into ISO 3166 codes.

/ FI: Open-ended question.

/ FR: Open-ended question.

/ IL: Open-ended question.

/ IS: Behind the second option there was an open textbox. The answers were coded afterwards. In order to avoid disclosing too much information about the respondents, the following (no official ISO 3166) codes have been used where the frequency was less than 5: code 930 for Europe, 935 for Latin and South America, 940 for Africa, 960 for other countries/ regions.

/ IT: Open-ended question.

/ NO: Data in F_BORN and M_BORN have been partly deleted and partly recoded/ swapped to avoid disclosure risk.

/ RU: Open-ended question.

/ SE: Category 2 open responses recoded following the ISO 3166. Category 1 recoded to 752. Countries not existing today were recoded to present ones, e.g. Soviet Union coded as Russian Federation. Those ticking the box that mother or father not born in Sweden but did not write in country of origin were coded as 'Don't know'.

/ SI: Open-ended question. Expected most frequent answers were pre-coded for CAPI, other answers were coded as 'other' and then included in additional variable. Both variables were used to create M_BORN.

/ SK: Category 3 open responses recoded following ISO 3166.

/ TH: Open-ended question, subsequently countries encoded to ISO 3166.

/ US: Respondents are not asked for parents' country of birth, only if their parents (one or both) were born in the United States or not. As a result, only two codes are available for the US: Born in the US (code 840 'United States') and born outside the US (code 950 'Outside of COUNTRY').

Note:

/ AT: The categories are used in the following way: 1=A big city (over 100.000 inhabitants), 2=The suburbs or outskirts of a big city, 3=In a bigger city (40.000 – 100.000 inhabitants) + In a small or middle city (5.000 – under 40.000 inhabitants), 4=A village, 5=In a single house or farm house at the countryside.

/ GE: Code 5 'A farm or home in the country' was not fielded.

/ SR: Almost 70 percent of the respondents did not get this question, due to a bad interviewer instruction: the question has mostly been understood to refer to migrants.

/ US: URBRURAL constructed by using XNORCSIZ in US GSS. The XNORCSIZ indicates NORC size of place. Codes for XNORCSIZ are: 1 'Within an SMSA and a large central city (over 250.000)'; 2 'A medium size central city (50.000 to 250.000)'; 3 'A suburb of a large central city'; 4 'A suburb of a medium size central city'; 5 'An unincorporated area of a large central city (division, township, etc.)'; 6 'An unincorporated area of a medium central city'; 7 'Not within an SMSA (within a county) and a small city (10.000 to 49.999)'; 8 'A town or village (2.500 to 9.999)'; 9 'An incorporated area less than 2.500 or an unincorporated area of 1.000 to 2.499' and 10 'Open country within larger civil divisions e.g., township, division'. XNORCSIZ is coded based on R's residential address. The mapping between XNORCSIZ and URBRURAL is as follows: XNORCSIZ=1 | XNORCSIZ=2 -> URBRURAL=1; XNORCSIZ=3 | XNORCSIZ=4 | XNORCSIZ=5 | XNORCSIZ=6 -> URBRURAL=2; XNORCSIZ=7 -> URBRURAL=3; XNORCSIZ=8 | XNORCSIZ=9 -> URBRURAL=4; XNORCSIZ=10 -> URBRURAL=5.

Substitution in this survey

SUBSCASE is to indicate whether a respondent is from the original sampling frame or is substituted for some reason (interview not obtained because of invalid address, no contact, refusal, etc.)

0 No substitution in this survey

1 Case from original sample

2 Case substituted

Note:

/ DE: ALLBUS uses a two stage random sample. In the first step there is a random selection of communities/ sample points. In a second step, there is a random sample of persons officially registered at their first place of residence (Germans are legally obliged to register). The German register is not organized in one central register, but organized in 5.283 local registers administered by municipalities. The local registers are allowed but not obliged to submit information for scientific purposes. 5 municipalities did/ could not cooperate and did not deliver information. These sample points had to be replaced by others with the same structural characteristics. Substitution of any individual case was not allowed during the fieldwork.

WEIGHT - Weighting factorWeighting factor

No total weight usable for international comparison.

The NATIONAL weight variable serves to compensate for unequal selection probabilities introduced by sampling design or non-response and can have design and/ or post-stratification and/ or non-response components.

NATIONAL weighting procedures/ variables used for calculation of NATIONAL weights:

AT: Combination of design weight for size of household (see HOMPOP) and post-stratification weight for 1) federal states, 2) age-cohorts by sex, 3) level of education.

BG: Post-stratification weights are used based on the variables AGE, SEX, NUTS2 and place of residence (urban/ rural).

CH: The sample frame is individual based and the sampling is pure random, so that every resident in Switzerland has equal chance to participate - all weights are equal to 1. No adjustment for non-response bias.

CL: Post-stratification weight (based on urbanity: urban/ rural, gender: male/ female and age: 18-29/ 30-44/ 45-54/ 55-64/ 65 and older) + non-response weight.

CZ: Design weight (based on selection probabilities) and post-stratification weight (based on NUTS2 + 4 levels of education, gender + 4 categories of age, 6 categories of age + education, size of municipality).

DE: Two separate German samples: the sample for eastern Germany deliberately over-samples the five eastern federal states. If all of Germany is taken as the unit of analysis (rather than the eastern and western states), design weight is necessary. The two weighting factors are stored in the weight variable (weighting factor for Western Germany: 1.193285751; weighting factor for Eastern Germany: 0.55977884).

DK: Person-level post-stratification weight adjusting for age and sex.

ES: Combined design and post-stratification weight: the design weights adjust for unequal selection probabilities, post-stratification weights adjust for non-response in the sample strata (NUTS II regions (Autonomous Communities, CCAA (E_REG) and size of municipality (TAMUNI)).

FI: Post-stratification weights were used based on the following variables: 1) gender, 2) age classes, 3) modified NUTS3 regions, 4) type of community.

FR: Post-stratification weight computed on sex, age (4 groups: 18 to 29 years old, 30 to 39 years old, 40 to 54 years old, 55 years old or more) and occupation (6 groups: Farmers, Tradesmen, Shopkeepers and Business Owners; Managers and Secondary/ University Teachers; Intermediate Professions, White Collar Workers; Blue Collar Workers; Unemployed)

GB-GBN: Combined, summary weights used (Design + Post-Stratification + Non-response) considering an additional weight due to a lower response than usual to the Self Complete section of the questionnaire which included the ISSP questions.

GE: Combined personal-level design weight (household size) and post-stratification weight (sex and age).

HR: No weighting necessary.

HU: Post-stratification weights used based on sex, age, education and type of settlement.

IL: Person-level design + non-response weight.

IS: No weighting, not needed according to the design.

IT: No weighting.

JP: No weighting.

KR: Post-stratification weight adjusting for: gender (male, female), age (18-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59 and over), region (Seoul, Kyunggi, Kangwon/ Jeju, Chungcheng, Kyungsnag, Cholla) and urbanicity (urban/ rural).

LT: Post-stratification weight used to make survey sample representative of the population by gender, age and type of settlement.

NO: No weighting.

NZ: Post-stratification weights used based on logistic regression models of Responded (yes/ no) by age group, Maori descent, region, NZ Deprivation Index, urbanicity, and occupation.

PH: Weighting variable is based on people aged 18+ (voting age) and area/ region (NCR, Balance Luzon, Visayas, Mindanao). The weight applied was based on the 2018 census population.

RU: Post-stratification weights were used based on sex, age and education.

SE: No weighting.

SI: No weighting.

SK: Post-stratification weight used based on county (8 categories) x size of community (3 categories) and sex, age (6 categories) and education (3 categories).

SR: Post-stratification weights used (based on stratum, gender, age, education, main activity and position in household).

TH: No weighting.

TR: No weighting.

TW: Design and post-stratification weights used; post-stratification weights were based on sex, age, urbanization and education-degree groups.

US: The US WEIGHT variable takes into consideration a) the sub-sampling of non-respondents, and b) the number of adults in the household. It also essentially maintains the original sample size.

ZA: Design weight + poststratification weight + non-response weight. Explicit stratification variables: Province, population group and geography type (viz. urban formal, urban informal, tribal and rural formal, including commercial farms). Non-response adjustment = number of drawn HHs per EA (census enumerator area)/ number of responding HHs (i.e. where a person 16+ is successfully interviewed) provided that at least 50% of households responded. Otherwise two similar (i.e. in the same explicit stratum) and neighbouring EAs are combined and a combined adjustment factor calculated. Person and household weights are benchmarked, for persons using province, population group, gender and different age groups (i.e. 16-19, 20-24, 25-34, 35-44, 45-54, 55-64 and 65 and older) as benchmark variables and for households using province and population group of the respondent in the household. The marginal totals for the benchmark variables are obtained from the applicable midyear estimates as published by Statistics South Africa.
