European Values Study (EVS)

World Values Survey (WVS)

GESIS-DAS and JD Systems Madrid

Documentation provided along with the data

The Variable Report-Tables provides frequency counts for almost all variables. Results are weighted by gwght and usually broken down by country/territory. For variables with long lists of real values (e.g., age), results are only presented for the corresponding categorized variable if available.

Countries surveyed in both EVS and WVS with separate samples are presented by country/study in the tables. Beware of the different fieldwork periods for each country's survey when comparing the results! In some cases, the interval between the surveys is large (e.g., the Netherlands EVS: 2017 vs WVS: 2022), partly this includes the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic. The fieldwork period by country (and survey program source) is provided in the Joint EVS/WVS Participating Countries and Territories (Excel file).

The purpose of the Variable Report-Documentation is to explain the structure of the Joint EVS/WVS 2017-2022 Dataset and its correspondence with the EVS 2017 (doi:10.4232/1.13897) and WVS7 (doi:10.14281/18241.20) source data files.

It describes the Common Dictionary agreed by EVS and WVS, the international and survey-specific standards that form the basis for harmonizing the data and provides information on the necessary recoding to map the common EVS and WVS core questions.

The Excel file Joint EVS/WVS Variable Correspondence provides an overview of variables included in the Joint EVS/WVS and the source datasets EVS 2017 and WVS7.

The Excel file Joint EVS/WVS Participating Countries and Territories provides an overview of countries and territories included in the current version of the Joint EVS/WVS and summarized information on fieldwork.

The documentation provided on the Joint EVS/WVS is available via the EVS or GESIS websites and the WVS website.

A comprehensive documentation of the EVS 2017 and WVS7 source datasets (guidelines, master/field questionnaires, methods and variable reports) not only helps users to explore the data but also shows how the recommendations and standards have been implemented to allow for an assessment of data quality, is available on the EVS 2017 and WVS7 websites.
